YPF Notice

Miguel Galuccio, the Chairman and CEO of YPF, confirmed he will continue to hold these positions until the upcoming general shareholders meeting, to be held in the near future.

Mr. Galuccio will stay at the helm of YPF until the upcoming shareholders meeting. He has committed to supporting the Board of Directors to ensure an orderly transition and cooperating in the search for his replacement.

"These have been four very intense years in which we've changed the direction of YPF to make it, once again, the engine of the country's energy development, creating value for its shareholders. I feel proud of what we've accomplished together with all YPF employees. But the time has come to allow others to continue down the path the company has undertaken. YPF is the best company in the country, and I'm certain that it will continue being the best," said Mr. Galuccio.
